Dec 17, 2017 For users of Final Draft 8, the latest update for Final Draft 9 is now available. The update delivers a host of new features and important bug fixes. The following is a list of features now available in Final Draft 9:

- * A 'Storyboard' window has been introduced in the

Assistant. This 'storyboard' window allows users to quickly create storyboards, rough drafts, a detailed overview of the story. When you open your story, this window is automatically shown and hidden based on the panel you are currently using. * Improved support for Final Draft Pro's 'Character Limit' feature. This allows you to set the number of words or characters that you'd like to add to your story. This limits the amount of characters or words that are automatically added to your stories when you enter a new paragraph. Also, 'Character Limit' allows you to set this value after your story has been opened. * An improved Organize panel has been added. New options are available to customize the view you want to see. You can now have 'Audiences' and

---

'Characters' view, or choose to show the panel across the top of the screen. * Final Draft now has a new way to add characters and story notes. This new interface is designed to make it easier to enter characters and notes. The window is split into three sections. The bottom part is a view of characters. The center is a character list.
