He has since performed in many Turkish music festivals and albums. Early life Başak was born in Düzce, Turkey in 1984. He holds Turkish citizenship. Career 2005–present: Breakthrough Başak was the lead vocal of the band Edem. At the show Turkish Star, he rose to fame as one of the semi-finalists of the show in 2005. At the semi-finals, he was voted as the first runner-up in the 'New Act' category. He continued to perform with the group Edem until January 2007 when they broke up. His group of people with whom he performs are called the "Pop group" and they call him the "Godfather". His first solo album was released in 2007 and it consists of 12 songs. He released his second album titled Yüzünü Örnek in 2009, which was successful. He collaborated with Yüksek Sadık, a contestant from Turkish Star, on a song "Söyle" in 2010. In 2010, he collaborated with Turkish singer Sen on a duet titled "Hamam" (Turkish for "Shower"). The song was released as a single and quickly became one of the most successful songs of 2010 in Turkey and Cyprus. On 31 December 2010, he released his third album titled Fısıltılık, which is the first album of his career to be a blues album. On 31 January 2011, he released a video for the title song of the album, "Yakışıklı Yumurta", featuring actor Kadir
