Is there a way to locate which files are the are the ones required to restore my installation or do i need to do it manually? Has anyone ever encountered this problem? Thank you in advance. A: Thank you for your responses. Rename the AUTOCAD installation folder to AutoCAD5.old- Restore the AutoCAD 2010 installation. Try installing AutoCAD 2009 again. I just recovered my installation on my Win 7 machine. I was facing the same problem after a Win 10 install. I found the solution on AutoCAD 2010 MEP Installation failure: Rename the AUTOCAD Installation folder to something like AutoCAD-5.old and then run the setup again. The installation will be successful. If it doesn't work then try this: Open the Windows\Start Menu and search for C:\Program Files (x86)\Autodesk\AutoCAD\2012\Autocad 12\Support\Setup.exe Right Click on the file and select Run as administrator. It works for me. Other solutions : Remove Windows10 and install AutoCAD 2010 for 32-bit Install Win 8.1, reinstall Autocad Restore Win7 folder from Win 8.1 installation image. Please upvote if this solution worked for you.
