I remember that Vanino port And the look of the steamer is gloomy, As we walked along the ladder with a load In the damp prison darkness. And who will meet us there, friend? As if that's what I'm going for. I see broad shoulders I see a row of overseers, How we are forced that evening Climb to the upper deck. How we all stripped naked And we were locked up in cells. Wardens don't let you sleep I dream of a merry penal servitude, It's like I'm standing in the sea. Goodbye family, goodbye For everything, forgive us, friends, fffad4f19a
