It is designed to meet the needs of the travellers such as the need for resources that can be used in a variety of settings, whether it be at home or in the classroom, for one teacher or for a group. It is also designed to be inspirational and motivating for the teacher. In essence, this series was designed to provide teachers of the travelling type with inspiration and motivation to work and travel with a greater sense of fulfilment and sense of purpose. The answer to the needs of the travelling teacher is to provide a series of cards for the travelling teacher that are suitable for a variety of environments. The series is divided into two sections, the first section is simply a collection of ‘paper’ materials that can be used at home as an aid to the traveller. As well, the first section of the cards also come with the following text: The second section is a resource that can be used on the travels of the travelling teacher. This section includes various themes that can be used to reflect upon various situations that a teacher might find themselves in during a travel period. The cards also include the text: The images below are available to print as personalised, and as A4 cards with four pockets (of varying sizes) suitable for travel. The cards can also be printed as single card, with the same number of pockets. The purpose of this project is to provide a series of cards to the travelling teacher.
