

I love to watch movies in bed. I have recently found that most sites that were showing a movie on the net had a bunch of popup ads all over the page. I just never realized it before. I have a Roku 3, which makes them really annoying to me. I have a VPN service that I use on my Roku 3, but then when I connect it is a whole other world on the Roku. If you are looking for an Alternative to Roku I think you would like this. Try Hola! I have used it for months now and it works very well. It is free and you can connect as many devices as you like. Here is a link to my own review of the service. I am also helping get the word out about the service. My Best Friends – The Multi-Splitscreen App for PS3 Go to PSN here: You will need a PS3 and PSN account to use this app. Go to My Apps here: You will find My Best Friends on the list. What you need to do is to login to your account and download this app. You need to have it set to multi-screen. You need to have it to stop video after 10 minutes if the screen goes to sleep. Turn off the screen lock. You will need to be on a 2.1 firmware When you put a split screen on the PS3 you will have the Multi-Splitscreen app on one and My Best Friends on the other. You can watch Netflix movies on your PS3. You can watch Hulu Plus videos on your PS3. You can watch YouTube videos on your PS3. You can watch any video files that are on your hard drive. You will need to download the app to your PS3 and you will need to download the movies you want to watch. Try this and let me know what you think.
