Actions in the game: n Choose the character that fights of your choice. n Click the "execute attack" button to the left of the character you want to turn into a corpse. n Attack your character to kill that character. n Take up a weapon belonging to the enemy. n Select an attack to destroy the enemy. n Remove the opponent's weapon. Use the keyboard for other actions. n Turn an enemy into a corpse by pressing the spacebar on their weapon. n Do the same by pressing "spacebars" on the opponent's weapon: Corpse, Weapon, Corpse, Chop Head, Arms and Legs, Weapon. If the weapon returns back to the player, remove the front of the weapon. n Enemy special weapons usually have a "kick" feature on the handle. Remove these indicators. n Fight without rules is part of the game! n The game has levels to fight. n Each level and level-reload are protected. n Play without fear of total danger! n Remember that you are fighting an enemy who is also fighting against you! n Use right click to attack or strike. n There are four types of blows - "knockout", "crack", "trim", "explosion", "blow". n Match successful hits in sequence to get "zero kills". n Alternate strikes to "break" your opponent. When scoring points for levels - points for levels are doubled. n There is a progress bar on the big screen. n You have to play to exhaustion, to the exhaustion of the soul and body. n The program will periodically load level by level. n The number of points you earn depends on how you fought the enemy. Be careful! Don't spend too many points! n If your opponent takes more damage than you, their health will decrease. If more than yours, then you will lose. n If many of your hits successfully hit nulls, you get that number of points doubled. n "Points" are not accumulated, but generated! If you haven't killed your opponent, then no
