Demo: Just downloaded this today, took me a minute to figure out how to uninstall it. When you click on the link to "Remove widgets..." it works but you have to uninstall it again to remove the widget from your site. A: I had same problem. So I solved it, but in no ways is this solution the best. Add to your css: .widget-title h1 { background-color: #000000; color: #ffffff; } Or just add some css class to widget-title h1. There is no real use for this solution, because every widget is customized. It's better to delete the widget and add new one. In recent years, as a development of information communication technology, semiconductor technology, in particular, manufacturing technology of semiconductor integrated circuits (hereinafter, abbreviated
