Fraser Unite Tus Cartelle Gioco SincroWith the end of the month in sight, the Thuderz have certainly had a busy April. The three lower 48 markets have been blessed by many great victories, including the UFC, at UFC 207 where Max Holloway achieved an epic victory in the five round main event over Jose Aldo. Not only did the event take place in Las Vegas, a city that will always be in my heart, but Holloway did it in one of the most fitting venues of all, the MGM Grand Garden Arena. In what appeared to be a duel, not unlike the arch rivals in the octagon, Holloway was able to exploit Aldo's weakness in a devastating fashion. Holloway was simply too quick for the Brazilian, changing his momentum early and never allowing him to get his hands down. The night also marked the first time that the UFC decided to show a live "Brawl" card on pay-per-view. The event sold 965,000 units in the U.S. and an additional 10,000 in Canada. As I've stated many times before, I consider this to be a pretty big accomplishment. In order for this to happen they had to convince the cable companies to drop the Sportsnet Network, the main network for Bell Media, but for the betterment of their programming and the overall network it was a great move. The following day, Holly Holm achieved a critical upset by knocking out Ronda Rousey in front of 73,000 fans. The UFC seemed to understand that this card could very well be a landmark day for them. In addition to Holm, the card also featured the match between Demetrious Johnson and TJ Dillashaw. Johnson was able to have a very dominating performance, while Dillashaw was able to take advantage of his wrestling background to earn a decision victory. The end of the month was highlighted by two more great results. At UFC 211, Anthony Johnson was able to take out the unstoppable Demetrious Johnson, in what many believed to be the fight of the year. This result put Johnson back in the center of the spotlight once again and it will be interesting to see how he reacts to this result. The third and last great fight of April was the Fight of the Year. At UFC 208, Conor McGregor put on quite the show. Despite multiple challenges from Khabib Nurmagomedov, Conor McGregor was able to walk 1cb139a0ed
