Tip There's no limit to the number of layers you can create. Click the New Layer button (the Add Layer icon) to create a new, empty layer. You can then work with that layer and, as you learn new Photoshop skills, create layers that you can add more and more to. Eventually you'll probably create so many layers that you find it hard to keep track of them all. As you add new layers, you can double-click them to open the Layer dialog box to change the name or other attributes of the layer, as described on the next page. * ** _Basic Layers_ **. These are single layers on which you can work with text, shapes, or both. You can create custom layers by drawing

Washington Redskins defensive end Carlos Dunlap, right, fights for yardage with Dallas Cowboys guard-center Zack Martin (74) as quarterback Dak Prescott (4) looks on during the first half of an NFL football game Sunday, Sept. 8, 2018, in Arlington, Texas. FRISCO, Texas — The Dallas Cowboys continue to sport five injured players, all listed as questionable. Only two players are game-ready, however: cornerback Byron Jones and safety Jaylon Smith. The cornerback, who continues to work in long-shot, if there was ever one, overtime effort to make the active roster, likely will not play Sunday against the Redskins. The Cowboys released rookie cornerback Anthony Brown on Friday and have depth at cornerback. Adding Jones to the injured list provides another chance for cornerback Chidobe Awuzie, who started at nickelback Sunday and practiced in full again on Friday. The safety is expected to play, at least, against the Redskins. He worked fully in practice on Friday and is listed as probable. He sprained his ankle in the season opener against the San Francisco 49ers but played Sunday. The more serious long-term injury occurred with the injury to his groin, which forced him out of the season opener. Dallas still has veterans Will Allen and Jeff Heath as their top healthy safeties, and Barry Church is a red-zone threat. After the Redskins released wide receiver Dante Pettis on Friday, they added quarterback Sam Darnold. Pettis was a seventh-round pick last spring and is the nephew of Hall of Famer and former Cowboys wide receiver Michael Irvin. The Redskins also signed wide receiver Ryan Grant, an undrafted rookie from Penn State, and former Packers and Eagles wideout Allen Lazard. Washington, meanwhile, has taken full advantage of the Cowboys' two injured starting cornerbacks. Trae Wayne is the team's top cornerback, but he did not practice on Thursday or Friday. Wayne missed the last three weeks last season with a Lisfranc injury to his right foot and continues to play with a brace. Wayne got the start at cornerback in the season opener, then put in a full practice on Thursday. In the opener, the Cowboys were unable to bring Irvin in as a special-teams player because his legal troubles limited his on-field involvement. This will be the second game of the season for Irvin, who leads the team with five solo tackles. Darn
