Ready Media Player is an easy-to-use audio player for listening to music, music videos, and audiobooks. It provides a simple interface to search for audio files on your computer or the network, and play them back. The content manager and download assistant Your favorite music can be found on the internet - in our collection. Most songs are available for download. Listen to music and see your music collection, downloads, your saved internet radio stations, your music videos, and podcasts from your library. Access your audio player from all your desktop applications, and play media from the internet through a network (UPnP). You can organize your music and discover your music on the internet through playlist and/or grouped albums, and even play the whole album of a group at once. Enjoy your favorite songs in a traditional radio player, and listen to the live radio stations. You can easily find and download songs from your friends, the internet, and the radio. Listen to your favorite music from the internet at no cost, or if you want to, you can also purchase music and unlock even more music. With Ready Media Player you can enjoy your music on your desktop and can even play it on a portable MP3 player or music system. Thanks to the great reviews we got last time, we have improved the viewing of URLs and bookmarks in the Web Browser. We have added a view bookmarks section to the bookmarks list. We also changed the way the bookmarks are ordered. Now they are sorted by their last use.
