Forget about the modern world for a moment and try to get back to your roots, to a more simple life. Take a look at The Primal Mind, which is inspired by the way people of old used to live. We believe in a fully natural life. In this brand new world, technology allows us to live in a simulated environment, but it is not the same. The Primal Mind is not a retreat, nor is it a disease to be cured. It is an alternative to a modern life of excessive stress and too many artificial things in the environment. It is an alternative to doing lots of unnecessary things, striving to achieve the impossible in every aspect of your life 595f342e71
