Hey, there, we're WebHeist Games and we're here to tell you that the unmissable PC game You Have Reached Glide By is available on Steam with the price of $15. We previously released a trailer showing the game in action. We were really impressed by what we saw and how it reminded us of a few driving games which we love and use to play all the time. Glide By has a super-calm and relaxing atmosphere which is enhanced by the boogie-woogie beats that play in the background, creating the perfect gaming atmosphere. The game will be released next Friday, so anyone who likes smooth driving games will certainly enjoy it. While you're waiting for the game to arrive, you can't go wrong by checking out the game trailer below. Comments Download and play one of the most fun and relaxing arcade driving games on PC. You're going to love the music and the huge collection of cars in this game. 1 Comment It's good but needs improvement Rating: This page uses third party cookies, which means that it gets its own cookies.
