CorelDRAW Graphics Suite X6 v16.0.0.707 x64bit.--- author: - | [Suman Jagatap]{}\ \ \ bibliography: -'main.bib' title: 'GAT: Generalizing Affective Texts' --- <ccs2012> <concept> <concept_id>10002951.10003317.10003347.10003356</concept_id> <concept_desc>Information systems Text mining</concept_desc> <concept_significance>300</concept_significance> </concept> </ccs2012> What are men really concerned about? The government thought it would be a good idea to do one of these “what men really want” surveys, where they get men to discuss their thoughts on issues that they supposedly care about. However, the study found that only two things really matter. Yes, men do care about family. They also care about how skinny, attractive and youthful you are. Despite this rather shocking result, “many men really do believe that they care about societal issues” (big surprise) and the more men understand about these issues, the more they will care. I always find these surveys pretty funny as they are always asking women to believe things about men that we have actually written down. The single biggest myth about men is that they are all selfish. Well, sure, according to the study, that’s the case. However, when you divide the selfish men into those that are selfish and those that are not selfish, it is the selfish men that don’t give a fuck about them. It is the selfish men who are more likely to have affairs and cheat on their partners. It is the selfish men who would rather work long hours than take time off to be with their partner and family. It is the selfish men who don’t want a family
