In addition to using player data to build a deeper level of control, what players do on the field can affect how other players behave and how matches play out. Players can interact with opponents on the field, for example, and that new action-based method of gameplay is often a key to creating tactical advantages and getting around opponents. "Your actions can influence your opposition," said Dr. Matt Besler, Head of FIFA U.K., "and that's just the tip of the iceberg – your actions can really influence the action around you and how the game unfolds." How FIFA 2K should work: An experience of the highest detail and realism: FIFA 2K is a FIFA simulation on a whole new level. It is built with a new, highly-detailed game engine, layer-by-layer, to deliver a game that's authentic and incredibly immersive. It's packed with the best athletes in the world and is powered by the FIFA 2K Global Series license. Intuitive Controls: FIFA 2K provides total control via a controller or keyboard/mouse. The game's controls are designed to be as easy to master as possible and players are able to adapt them to their play style. One of the biggest and most exciting changes to the game is the updated ball physics system, which allows players to use a broader range of techniques and is the key to creating the tight and responsive gameplay that has become FIFA's defining feature. A Global Series of Technical Skill: FIFA 2K is powered by the FIFA Global Series license, the world's first soccer game license in history to be fully integrated and developed by a single publisher. The game includes the official FIFA real-life kits and comes with both official and licensed players from all clubs represented in the FIFA Global Series – giving you the chance to play matches with real teams and players. FIFA 2K delivers the most authentic soccer on any console. It is the first ever FIFA game to have the official FIFA real-life kits and comes with both official and licensed players from all clubs represented in the FIFA Global Series. Highly Detailed Dynamic Player Faces: FIFA 2K players have been recreated using the latest real-life faces from the 2014 FIFA World Cup, including official faces from Brazilian national team and Uruguay, so players are
