CutOut is a nifty application that provides you with the necessary set of tools for designed realistic-looking montages or image compositions using elements from various photos. Use chroma key to cut the elements for your compositions The program comes with a sleek, stylish and intuitive interface that is unlikely to give you any troubles. You can get started by browsing to the directory that contains the images that you want to use for your composition. Since the GUI is designed as a dashboard, you can easily navigate between the folders and switch to another one without too much hassle. It is worth mentioning that the app relies on the chroma key for cutting elements from various pictures. In fact, you can use your mouse to select the desired object and cut it out onto a monochrome background with just one click. To make everything more realistic, you can rely on the inside and outside edge matting before the cut. Allows you to process layers individually and supports basic editing You will be happy to learn that the tool can quickly cut even the most demanding objects, such as hair, feathers, fur or other elements that are usually hard to modify even for users with advanced editing skills. Speaking of advanced, besides the matting, the app also lets you process layers one by one, a feature that is useful if you want to create a realistic composition. The program permits you to perform some additional editing for the elements, an option you can access from the Context menu. Consequentially, you can adjust the colors. Modify the exposure, sharpen, reduce blur or perform other enhancements without too much effort. A fun photo editor for creating stunning collages Regardless of whether you want to make a fun montage with you in the most absurd places, want to create a picture where all your loved ones are together or perhaps, want to add various elements into an image, CutOut could come in handy.About Founded in 1985, the non-profit organization funds and promotes the arts across the state of California. In its 30-year history, the organization has awarded more than $78 million in grants to non-profit artists, arts organizations and arts centers. Grants are offered in several categories to a wide variety of cultural institutions, such as art galleries, dance and performing arts centers, performing arts venues, opera companies, symphony orchestras, children's theaters, community theaters, ballet companies, orchestras and more. The organization also awards grants in the areas of operations and human services.
