Smart Choice: Level 3 Teacher's Book Subscribe to this channel for more useful and interesting content. Today's lesson: The testing program The Testing Program offers interactive, auto-scored Progress Tests as well as downloadable unit, midterm and final tests that you can adapt to your teaching and learning style.

Test your students by developing a complex test-bank with interactive questions and auto-scoring features. You'll never again hand out a test with 30 questions you wrote by hand. Since testing is fun, it makes learning more rewarding and keeps students focused. With the Testing Program, you can grade tests and store them in your electronic portfolio so you can quickly find them if you need to. The Testing Program is fully integrated with the Student Book and Workbook audio and video. You can assign tests to your students, write a test for a unit you want to cover, and print a test for students to take outside of class.

relative signal intensity ratio (RIR) analysis was performed, and the corresponding histologic diagnoses were made after biopsy. The RIR curves of oncocytomas were different from those of typical renal cell carcinomas, with a peak of RIR1 at a mean of 54.25 for oncocytomas, increasing to 58.00 in RIR2 at 48 and 72 min. The difference was statistically significant (P

The Santa Ana River Tree is Located in Santa Ana, CA Find directions to "The Santa Ana River Tree," a cool and mysterious tree on the Santa Ana River in Santa Ana, California. Whether you're on foot, on a bike, on a horse, or in a car, the Santa Ana River Tree is worth the trip. It was a vital resting place for weary travelers from the 19th century to the present. The tree grew up and down the banks of the river from late June to late September, its branches arching over the narrow valley. It stands beside the Rio Hondo; the river changes direction here and there. The original dam and dike have been removed, but the river itself is just as essential to the city's water supply as it was over a hundred years ago. Today,
