On the other hand, if a child does things as an adult (e.g. gets married) that would be very difficult/counterintuitive for a young child to do on their own, then they would probably still be a child. And if a child is doing a variety of things that an adult is doing, or more complex things, then he could be very young. So looking up "young" and "old" on Google may not be quite enough. Anonymous, What a strange thing to say. Do they not live in the United States, or are you accusing the United States for the Constitution not being followed? Btw, any information for the mods? Lol that was in response to being called uncivil I've seen better comments in all forums. I'm at work at the moment but if I read it correctly you guys think EVERYTHING should be named, because it isn't religious enough. No there is no new information. Its quite obvious how you feel though. This is in response to the name you picked for your thread: "There is no God..." Its quite inappropriate that you would come to a forum full of atheists, and name a thread after the oldest and most offensive myth known to man. Lol that was in response to being called uncivil I've seen better comments in all forums. I'm at work at the moment but if I read it correctly you guys think EVERYTHING should be named, because it isn't religious enough. Yes, I think religion and its tenants are just as important to American society as they are to any other country. One man's religion is another man's junk so to speak. I also read a comment
