Breadcrumb trail CLRC Communications Committee: Power over Kill NDP Education critic Zach Churchill speaks with CLRC's Communications Committee. February 15, 2019 The Power over Kill campaign, led by the Canadian Labour Congress, targeted the Conservative government's massive cuts to the Department of Fisheries and Oceans' scientific program. The cuts are part of the upcoming federal budget and continue under the Harper government. "Power over Kill" refers to a network of over 50 provincial and federal elected and appointed fishery policy and science bodies to ensure that Indigenous rights are respected. We're asking people to tell the government to stop hurting Indigenous people by proposing more drastic cuts to Fisheries and Oceans. It's also a call for everyone to take action. CLRC national President Hassan Yussuff has publicly declared a desire to shut the fisheries down. Zach Churchill's mic is off. So we hear him pretty clearly in the background. But the make up of the room to our left, seems pretty packed.
