In compliance with Copyright Law regulations, I have attempted to link the Title and Author of this software to the owner of the title/copyright. I have also obtained a copy of the license. The problem is that I don't actually own the title or the copyright, and I know that my university is not ok with the use of this software. Therefore, I'm trying to make a free version that may be distributed (if the software and the title and copyright are ok) with the hope that maybe one of these days my university will realize that they are wrong. I have developed the whole software using the free licence of the university (which is generally ok for my program), but I don't know how to make a free version of it. Can anyone tell me how to deversion of it. Can anyone tell me how to deversion of it. Can anyone tell me how to deversion of it. Can anyone tell me how to deversion of i
