source A: This is a common problem that can occur when you switch to a monitor with native resolution higher than the one set in the software, so that it is forced to scale/dither the image to the target resolution. This is an option that you can change at the installation of the game. The easiest way to solve it is to simply open the folder where the game is installed and delete the folder "Angry Birds Rio.exe" and you will no longer have this issue. Republicans Stop Preserving Democracy August 6, 2012 The current political scenario is dire. Four years from now, Republicans are all but guaranteed to be the largest party in Congress. But in 2012, they have no idea what to do with that power, no idea how to govern. I was only slightly surprised when Sarah Palin said that the problem with Barack Obama is that he can't lead. This was neither new nor original. Sarah Palin has a point, and a reason she was a more suitable candidate than the current occupant of the White House. But the current occupant of the White House has faults, and the most serious one is that he cannot lead. This is a person who has done nothing to suppress those hothead justo militares from Cuba who have nearly killed us repeatedly on our own soil. But there is something else that makes Obama so utterly incapable of leading. This is a person who has taken over an increasingly partisan government, with no concept or strategy for bringing people together. We have a two-party system right now because there was a political vacuum in the 1990's. It is one of the most bizarre things in political science. But that is exactly why we need to scrap the political system. The political system is designed to be obstructionist. It is designed to make government ineffective. It is designed to result in millions upon millions of wasted resources by force politics and unnecessary wars. And now this artificial system has spread its poison into the third party system, turning a healthy semi-democracy into a gerrymandered two-party tyranny in all but name. Only the Republicans are completely incapable of governing right now. The Democrats do not have the will to govern right now. They are incapable of leading. Instead, the Republicans are furiously fighting each other. Already, the Republicans have the most votes in the Senate, but they have no plan to pass legislation. They have no plan to bring their political d0c515b9f4
