It is the willingness to let someone else be responsible for his or her own decisions, and to accept the consequences. It is an act of kindness. The more you do for other people, the more they will like you. The more they like you, the more you will be appreciated. The more people appreciate you, the more help you will receive.

We do not trust ourselves to give to others as He would have us to give to them. We do not trust ourselves to be with God in prayer and to rest in His protection and care. We do not trust ourselves to be strong and patient and to remain faithful in the midst of the hardships that come in life. The time is now to put your trust in God. The time is now to seek the Lord and to hold fast to him. The time is now to seek the Lord and to hold fast to him.
