which you pay to complete a survey. There is much more to it, and we now give the real background. Your consent is optional; we do not use your data for any other purposes. Opt-out of this survey via the double opt-in option below. Why? Because we have to make our living. We work, we earn, we pay taxes, etc. and we have no choice. We can only go where we are allowed. The money we receive for the purchase of your product, or for a survey, is not an 'extra' (additional income), but paid for our products and services. It does not make us rich, or a millionaire. More and more people are independent, having had to leave their old jobs. Many do not need to work, but if they do, they are perhaps only able to do so in order to make a few euros. For this reason, we consider that we must also have the right to the products and services which we use and at the same time make a living. For this reason, we have produced this independent and private newsletter for several years now, to inform our users about the available offers and to make this clear to you. How? We think it is important to inform you in a reliable way about the offers which are available. But also because the internet is changing so fast and offers change so quickly that it is important to regularly inform you of new offers. Why we collect data? We do not store data about your computer or the individual services which you use, because this is necessary and technically possible, but we ask you to use our data collection function, if you do not agree with our storage and use of personal data. Our goal is to inform our readers about new offers that we have. This
